

Services for Patrons with Disabilities

The Bridgman Public Library affirms its support of equal access for persons with disabilities and the Americans with Disabilities Act. The library, within the limits of staff and budget, seeks to make its services, facilities and programs as accessible as possible to the public, including those who have disabilities.

Requests for Accommodation

Sign Language interpreters, assistive listening devices, or other auxiliary aids and/or services may be provided upon request. Patron must submit a Reasonable Accommodation Request form. A request must be made at least 72 hours prior to the scheduled program.

Service animals

Patrons are permitted to bring certified service animals into the library. Pets are not allowed.

Library materials

The library has the following materials that may be of interest to patrons with disabilities:

Large Print books

Audio books

Movies with closed captions for the hearing impaired

Downloadable eBook and audio books

Individual assistance

Staff will assist patrons who because of a disability are unable to use the catalog or retrieve material.

Home delivery

The library provides a monthly home delivery of materials to patrons who because of a disability are unable to come to the library.

Michigan Braille & Talking Book Library

Patrons who are unable to read standard print may be eligible for free books and adaptive technology through the Michigan Braille & Talking Book Library. Patrons may apply for services by filling out an application (www.michigan.gov/btbl) or by calling 1-800-992-9012.
